Dear Partner,

Following the success of our previous editions, we are pleased to announce the OncoSummit 2027 - Congress on Lifestyle Oncology & Cancer Survivorship, taking place from 4 to 7 of November 2027 in Lisbon, Portugal.

Organised by the European School of Lifestyle Oncology and the AIM Cancer Center, this 3rd edition marks an important milestone, as it evolves into an international meeting, bringing together a global community of clinicians and healthcare professionals dedicated to advancing cancer care and survivorship.

Lifestyle oncology is one of the fastest-growing areas in oncology, with clinicians progressively integrating exercise, nutrition, mental health, and supportive care into daily practice.

The OncoSummit 2027 offers a unique opportunity to connect with more than 1,000 participants and 100+ speakers, over four days, creating the ideal environment for meaningful exchange and long-term collaboration.

We would like to invite you to join us as a partner in this journey. Your participation will position your organisation alongside leading institutions and brands committed to improving outcomes and quality of life for people living with and beyond cancer.

Please find attached our Sponsorship Prospectus, where you can explore the different opportunities available.

We would be delighted to discuss how we can tailor a partnership aligned with your strategic objectives.

Kind regards,
Raquel Mariz
On behalf of the OncoSummit Team

What OncoSummit Brings

The OncoSummit provides direct access to a highly engaged audience of healthcare professionals actively involved in cancer care and survivorship. This is a unique setting where brands can move beyond visibility and create meaningful connections with clinicians, decision-makers, and multidisciplinary teams.

A focused clinical audience

Engage directly with clinicians and healthcare professionals actively engaged in patient care.

Time and space for meaningful exchange

At 1,000 participants over 4 days, you have real conversations. The scale of the event allows for visibility and proximity across participants.

Brand alignment with innovation

Align your organisation with one of the fastest-growing areas in oncology and be recognised as a partner in advancing patient-centred care.

International visibility

Connect with a growing international audience and position your brand within a global network of healthcare professionals.
